Troubling the Waters Desert Oasis

Psalm 107: 'Let everyone give all their praise and thanks to the Lord! Here's why—he's better than anyone could ever imagine. Yes, he's always loving and kind, and his faithful love never ends.

²⁻³ So, go ahead—let everyone know it! Tell the world how he broke through and delivered you from the power of darkness and has gathered us together from all over the world. He has set us free to be his very own! ⁴ Some of us once wandered in the wilderness like desert nomads, with no true direction or dwelling place. ⁵ Starving, thirsting, staggering, we became desperate and filled with despair. ⁶ Then we cried out, "Lord, help us! Rescue us!" And he did! [...] ⁹ How he satisfies the souls of thirsty ones and fills the hungry with goodness! [...]

²⁴ We were witnesses of God's power out in the ocean deep; we saw breathtaking wonders upon the high seas. ²⁵ When God spoke he stirred up a storm, lifting high the waves with hurricane winds. [...] ³³ Whenever he chooses he can dry up a river and turn the land into a desert. ³⁴ Or he can take a fruitful land and make it into a saltwater swamp, all because of the wickedness of those who dwell there. ³⁵ But he also can turn a barren wilderness into an oasis with water! He can make springs flow into desert lands ³⁶ and turn them into fertile valleys so that cities spring up, and he gives it all to those who are hungry. ³⁷ They can plant their fields and vineyards there and reap a bumper crop and gather a fruitful harvest. ³⁸ God will bless them and cause them to multiply and prosper.

"What will it take to see a fellowship within walking distance of everyone in the whole country?" Show us, Lord!
